April 4 – May 15

Pandas Associate Coach Naoki Miyashita is available to conduct individual and small group training sessions focusing on the fundamental skills of volleyball. Athletes will have the opportunity to work on their strengths with an emphasis on improving weaknesses in their technical game.

Participants should have played club volleyball in the 2018 season. The fee is $75/hour for a personal session or $50/person/hour for small groups.

Sessions can be requested anytime during the day and will be available based on access to facility.
